

When law meets culture: European Public Policies for (language) diversity in film

Speaker:

Dr Miren Manias-Munoz

Miren Manias-Munoz holds a PhD in Film and Media studies at the University of the Basque Country UPV/EHU (2015) and was awarded ex-aequo as the 2015 Best Doctoral Thesis by the SGAE Foundation. Her thesis looks into the economics and production conditions of Basque-language cinema, based on the recent Culture Policy of the Basque Government.

In this lecture Manias-Munoz will present some findings from her research into the European legal framework to protect and promote cultural diversity in cinema within the context of digitalisation and the use of Internet.
